ELIMINATION OF RACISM AND RACIAL DISCRIMINATION

United Republic of Tanzania*: revised draft resolution

Measures to combat contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 51/79 of 12 December 1996 and Commission on Human Rights resolutions 1997/73 and 1997/74 of 18 April 1997,[1]

Bearing in mind the outcome of the World Conference on Human Rights, held at Vienna from 14 to 25 June 1993, in particular the attention given in the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action[2] to the elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and other forms of intolerance,

Aware that racism, as one of the exclusionist phenomena plaguing many societies, requires resolute action and cooperation for its eradication,

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.

Having examined the report of the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,[1] including its conclusions and recommendations,

Deeply concerned that, despite continued efforts, racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, as well as acts of violence, continue to persist and even grow in magnitude, incessantly adopting new forms, including tendencies to establish policies based on racial, religious, ethnic, cultural and national superiority or exclusivity,

Deeply concerned also that those advocating racism and racial discrimination misuse new communication technologies, including the Internet, to disseminate their repugnant views,

Conscious of the fundamental difference between, on the one hand, racism and racial discrimination as governmental policy or resulting from official doctrines of racial superiority or exclusivity and, on the other hand, other manifestations of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance that are increasingly visible in segments of many societies and are perpetrated by individuals or groups, some of which manifestations are directed against migrant workers and members of their families,

Noting that the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, in its general recommendation XV (42) of 17 March 1993[2] on article 4 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, holds that the prohibition of the dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or racial hatred is compatible with the right to freedom of opinion and expression as outlined in article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights[3] and in article 5 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination,[4]

Conscious that impunity for crimes motivated by racist and xenophobic attitudes plays a role in weakening the rule of law and tends to encourage the recurrence of such crimes,

Emphasizing the importance of creating conditions that foster greater harmony and tolerance within societies,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance;[1]

[4] Resolution 2106 A (XX), annex.

2. Requests the Special Rapporteur to continue his exchange of views with Member States, relevant mechanisms, related United Nations organs and specialized agencies in order to further their effectiveness and mutual cooperation;

3. Welcomes the recommendation of the Special Rapporteur to convene, without further delay, a world conference on racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance;

4. Affirms that racism, in particular acts of racist violence, does not comprise expressions of opinion but rather offences;

5. Expresses its profound concern at and unequivocal condemnation of all forms of racism and racial discrimination, in particular all racist violence, and related acts of random and indiscriminate violence;

6. Also expresses its profound concern at and unequivocal condemnation of all forms of racism and racial discrimination, including propaganda, activities and organizations based on doctrines of superiority of one race or group of persons, that attempt to justify or promote racism and racial discrimination in any form;

7. Expresses its profound concern at and condemnation of manifestations of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance against migrant workers and members of their families, persons belonging to minorities, and members of vulnerable groups in many societies;

8. Encourages all States to include in their educational curricula and social programmes at all levels, as appropriate, knowledge of, and tolerance and respect for, foreign cultures, peoples and countries;

9. Recognizes that the increasing gravity of different manifestations of racism, racial discrimination and xenophobia in certain countries of the world requires a more integrated and focused approach on the part of the relevant mechanisms of United Nations human rights machinery;

10. Encourages Governments to take measures to eradicate all forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance;

11. Categorically condemns those who misuse some print, audio-visual and electronic media and new communication technologies including the Internet, in inciting violence motivated by racial hatred;

12. Recognizes that Governments should implement and enforce legislation to prevent acts of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance;

13. Calls upon all Governments and intergovernmental organizations, with the assistance of non-governmental organizations, as appropriate, to supply relevant information to the Special Rapporteur based on situations in various countries to enable him to fulfil his mandates;

14. Commends non-governmental organizations for the action that they have taken against racism and racial discrimination, and for the continuous support and assistance that they have provided to the victims of racism and racial discrimination;

15. Urges all Governments to cooperate fully with the Special Rapporteur with a view to enabling him to fulfil his mandate;

16. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteur with all the necessary human and financial assistance to carry out his mandate efficiently, effectively and expeditiously and to enable him to submit an interim report to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session.
